5. Nature and purpose of the proceeding; why the foreign state (or political subdivision) has been named; relief requested:

This is a notice of suit in an action to register in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware a judgment of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. On March 15, 2002, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia entered a final judgment in Cause No. 00-2987(JR) in favor of Plaintiff, Walker International Holdings Limited and against Defendants The Republic of Congo and Caisse Congolaise D'Amortissement for $26,093,251.00, plus interest and costs, based upon an Arbitration Award issued by the International Chamber of Commerce. The Republic of Congo was named in this action because it is a defendant and judgment debtor in the proceeding in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia of which it had notice, but elected not to defend. The relief sought in this action and the garnishment action referenced above is to enable Plaintiff to execute on any assets of, or debts owned to, the Republic of Congo that are within the jurisdiction of the United States

District Court for the District of Delaware. If the Court issues a writ of garnishment to enforce the judgment, the money and property of the Republic of Congo could be taken without further warning from the Court.

6. Questions relating to state immunities and to the jurisdiction of United States courts over foreign states are governed by the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976, which appears in Sections 1330, 1391(f), 1441(d), and 1602 through 1611 of Title 28, United States Code (Pub. L. 94-583; 90 Stat. 2891). A copy of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act is attached.
